Art Unit: 1774

1. Claims 11-16, 18 and 20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Chatwin et al. (5,492,370). Chatwin et al. disclose a decorative article having a substrate comprising a polymeric film (see col. 3, lines 28-31). The film may be embossed on one side and the embossed surface may be metallised. The article may have an indicia receptive layer on the opposite surface (see col. 6, lines 28-37). The indicia receptive surface is an outermost surface of the medium. The final article may have an adhesive layer on one surface (see col. 4, lines 59-63). Indicia may be formed by several different means (see col. 9, lines 25-33).

The reference does not recite the maximum specular glossiness as recited in claims 11-16, however, the reference is directed to making cards with optically variable effects (see col. 2, lines 27-30). Maximum specular glossiness is a visual effect or visual property of the medium after printing. In addition, the card has the instantly claimed layers that would inherently be able to achieve the specular glossiness values of the claims. Based upon the teachings of the reference, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in this art to achieve desired visual effects, including specular glossiness of a surface image, using the article disclosed therein.

2. Applicant's arguments filed April 14, 2004 have been fully considered but are moot in view of the new grounds of rejection.

3. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
